

Milano, January 30th 2020

Dear Exhibitors and Visitors,

Given the latest news about the Coronavirus health warning, with the attached briefing, we would like to inform you that organization of MIDO 2020 is proceeding as scheduled.

The exhibition will strictly abide by the recommendations provided by the World Health Organization and the Italian Ministry of Health in compliance with current regulations. In order to safeguard exhibitors and visitors, MIDO 2020 will adopt all additional preventive measures recommended by the health authorities.

We are at your disposal for clarification or any needs you might have and will promptly notify you of any developments in the situation.

Thank you for your attention and for your diligence in sharing this information with your organization and your guests.

The Mido Secretariat